How to get to the island of Aegina from the Athens Airport

You will be flying into Athens, Airport, ATH.

You can get to the Piraeus port by bus, train, or cab. Almost everyone takes a cab.

If you wish, we can have a taxi cab driver (his name is Stavros, pick you up at the airport and take you to the Piraeus port. The fare costs approximately 50 euro from 5:00 a.m. to midnight and 80 euro from midnight to 5:00 a.m. Please, let us know in advance if you would like us to reserve your cab ride.

If you wish to take a bus or train, please, let us know and we will give you the updated schedule as we get closer to the date.

If your flight arrives late in the evening and there are no more ferries to the island for the day, Stavros or the cab you choose, can take you to Hotel Poseidonio which is in walking distance to the Piraeus port. Please, let us know in advance if you would like us to reserve a room for you.

We will try to meet every one at the Piraeus port and get you to the island.

The ferry ride takes less than 90 minutes and costs approximately 15 euro.

Both Hotel Avra and the Bed and Breakfast that we will be recommending are less than 10 minute walk from the port.

As we get closer to the date, we will post exact pictures of the boat terminal, ticket counter, boat schedule, and Stavros as well.

Please, remember that:

- European dates are written backwards.
- Almost every one speaks English and if they don't, they will go out of their way to find someone who does.
